THE NEXT GREAT....

At Shedpoint, we want to help the next wave of great Albertan businesses grow and succeed. We believe this is an amazing place with amazing people and aim to do our part in providing the space and services necessary to help entrepreneurs in their journey.

Simple, flexible terms. Scaling support. Export advice. Financial resources. Fulfillment.

We don't just offer space. Shedpoint is a destination for growth.

THE SHEDPOINT ADVANTAGE

Traditional office and warehouse leases completely favour the landlords. Tenants take all the risk – you have to sign long-term deals where you are responsible for the base rent, operational costs, and any overhead.

These leases are a nightmare for small and scaling businesses. What if you need to grow? What if your cash flow takes a hit? Traditional landlords are focused on extracting money from tenants, rather than helping businesses succeed.

Companies like WeWork and Regus pioneered a new model for real estate – coworking – that offered flexibility and shorter terms to members while providing many amenities that only come with larger office spaces. Unfortunately, until now, there were no coworking options for businesses that deal with physical goods or need warehouse space.

Shedpoint changes this. We offer smaller, more flexible warehousing and office solutions so we can help scaling companies grow. By bringing together a network of like-minded entrepreneurs, offering support services, and providing all the amenities usually reserved for larger companies, we tear up the idea of a normal lease and aim to partner with our members in accelerating their businesses.
