Strong Economic Foundation

Camrose is surrounded by productive agricultural lands and continues to expand in the value-added agriculture and manufacturing sectors. The city's skilled labor pool, innovative industries, and commitment to sustainable growth make it a magnet for forward-thinking investors.

Health Care

As one of Alberta's leaders in rural health care, Camrose offers an extensive network of medical professionals, a major hospital, and a Primary Care Network (PCN). The city's strong health sector supports both its growing population and new business development opportunities.

Education

Camrose offers outstanding educational opportunities at every level, with numerous schools complemented by two renowned post-secondary institutions, the University of Alberta Augustana Campus and the Canadian Lutheran Bible Institute. This strong academic foundation fosters a vibrant learning environment and provides a steady pipeline of skilled graduates for local employers.
