CLEMMONS is a small town located in Forsyth County, North Carolina and a suburb 10 miles southwest of Winston-Salem, the largest city in the county. It is a desirable town with low unemployment rates, low tax rates, and above average median household incomes.

The Village of Clemmons has a vibrant business community with over 1,000 registered businesses. Clemmons is part of the Piedmont Triad, a metropolitan region in the north-central part of the U.S. state of North Carolina anchored by three cities: Greensboro, Winston-Salem, and High Point, and forms the basis of the Greensboro–Winston-Salem–High Point, NC Combined Statistical Area. As of 2022, the population of the Piedmont Triad was 1,705,315, making it the 36th largest CSA in the United States.

WINSTON-SALEM is the county seat of Forsyth County, North Carolina with a 2022 metro population of approximately 670,000. Home to Wake Forest University, the city fosters intellectual growth and research, while its arts districts, theaters, and galleries offer a rich tapestry of artistic expression.

The growing city is located in the heart of the Carolinas with easy access to destinations throughout the Southeast, making it an ideal place for business. Public and private investment of $713 million has created the Wake Forest Innovation Quarter (IQ). The IQ, one of the world's leading innovation districts, is now home to more than 90 companies. As well as space for businesses, the IQ features education in biomedical research and engineering, information technology and digital media, as well as public gathering spaces, apartment living, restaurants, and community events.

Winston-Salem has a strong base of national businesses, being the home to the corporate headquarters of HanesBrands, Krispy Kreme Doughnuts, Lowes Foods Stores, Quality Oil Company, ISP Sports, Reynolds American Innovation Quarter and TW Garner Food Company.
