PROPERTY INFORMATION

The Story:

Originally the New Bay Motel, the City of Los Angeles forced the Seller to close as a Motel in late 2024. All signage was removed. A nonprofit leased the hotel and made conversions to accommodate their desire for permanent residency. Several upgrades were made to the interior and electrical system. Unfortunately, the nonprofit after paying over $200,000 in lease payments and upgrading the property to their intended use, lost their funding and were forced to vacate the property. Now vacant, the Property is now Exclusively listed for sale.

Changes and Current to Interiors

Per ZIMAS in 2023, the New Bay Hotel consisted of 21 rooms and 21 bathrooms. The tenant converted the property to what it now is – 7 large rooms with 1 dedicated community bathroom/shower area on the ground floor comprised of 6 individual shower areas, 6 sinks and 6 toilet stalls (please see photos). Much was spent by the tenant to convert the property with the promise that at the end of the lease, the Property would be reverted back to its original 21 rooms. The tenant has declared bankruptcy and is not able to do as promised.

Each room was remodeled with wood vinyl floors and attractive paint. None of the 7 individual rooms has a restroom

Protection of Investment:

To protect the property, the Seller has installed exterior perimeter gates and has hired a security guard during the evenings.
