HILLWOOD
A PEROT COMPANY

PHASE I

Goose Creek Commerce Center is a Class-A industrial park that sits directly on Interstate 10 in the highly sought after Southeast ("Port") Submarket. This submarket has seen substantial growth due to its strategic location and accessibility to major truck, barge, and rail routes, making it a key hub for logistics and distribution operations. The site is a 15-minute drive from Barbour's Cut Terminal and a 25-minute drive from Bayport Terminal via a direct freeway route, reducing drayage costs. Target occupiers are well connected and can distribute regionally to Houston, Austin, Dallas, San Antonio, and the Rio Grande Valley.
