Generously sized and featuring king beds and private balconies, these rooms offer a relaxed Adirondack retreat, with soaking tubs and steam showers in select accommodations.

Tree Rooms

Bird Rooms (Cozy)

The five Bird Rooms—Cardinal, Sparrow, Bluejay, Dove, and Finch—are the Inn's most intimate accommodations. Featuring queen beds and warm Adirondack charm, several open onto private balconies, creating the perfect setting for a quiet weekend getaway.

The Grounds

The grounds are the soul of Friends Lake Inn.

A landscaped wedding lawn and perennial gardens give way to a gentle waterfall, flowing stream, and spring-fed pond crossed by a charming footbridge—a storybook setting beneath the Inn’s signature willow tree. Outdoor fireplaces invite guests to linger over hot chocolate or a glass of wine long after sunset.

Beyond the gardens, guests enjoy lake and trail access to miles of Adirondack forest trails, along with complimentary kayaks and snowshoes for year round recreation. It is a rare combination of manicured elegance and unspoiled wilderness—one of the property’s most valuable and irreplaceable assets.

Dining & Wine Cellar

Dining has always been at the heart of Friends Lake Inn. The restaurant features locally sourced, farm-to-table cuisine that changes with the seasons, offering an elegant candlelit experience in the historic Main Dining Room, highlighted by its original 1800s tin ceiling and wood burning fireplace, as well as more casual dining in the Birch Bistro, distinguished by its custom birch legged tables and dramatic wall of windows.

With a built-in audience from the Inn's lodging guests, a legacy of national dining recognition, and an established local following, the restaurant and award-winning wine program represent a significant opportunity for continued food, beverage, and experiential revenue—whether preserved as a fine dining destination or thoughtfully reimaged for a new generation of Adirondack travelers.
