Marcus & Millichap is pleased to exclusively list for sale Highway 290 Shopping Center, located at 25402 Northwest Freeway in Cypress, Texas.

Strategically positioned along the highly trafficked Highway 290 retail corridor, this 10,200-square-foot retail center is a compelling investment opportunity in one of Northwest Houston's most dynamic suburban markets. Built in 2021 and 100 percent occupied, the property delivers a stabilized income stream from two tenants with established operations, including a long-term lease commitment for the urgent care operator. There is value-add potential as Texas Floors' lease converts from gross to triple-net upon commencement of the five-year renewal option beginning May 1, 2027.

The location benefits from over 400 feet of frontage on Highway 290, with daily traffic counts exceeding 100,000 vehicles, excellent visibility, and access that supports sustained retail demand. The property is located near Houston Methodist Cypress Hospital and the main entrance to Cole's Crossing, an affluent master-planned community with strong demographic metrics— average household incomes in excess of $130,000 within a 1-mile radius— underscoring a robust local consumer base.

Highway 290 Shopping Center is offered at a price of $4,530,000, which represents a Day 1 cap rate of 7.00 percent and a Pro Forma cap rate of 7.52 percent. With proximity to major retailers and service providers along the Spring Cypress retail node, the asset is well-positioned for long-term value retention and potential future upside.

MARKET OVERVIEW

As the fourth-most populous metro area in the United States, Houston houses more than 7.4 million people in southeastern Texas. Roughly one-third of residents live in the city of Houston. Local population counts also exceed 100,000 residents in Pasadena, Pearland, The Woodlands, Sugar Land, and League City. The market is composed of nine counties: Harris, Galveston, Brazoria, Fort Bend, Chambers, Montgomery, Austin, Liberty, and Waller. The Gulf of Mexico, which borders the metro to the southeast, provides access to markets around the world via the Port of Houston, making it a prime location for exports. Local industries have diversified from oil, to technology and health care. Many companies provide goods and services for the large population growth, which has sprawled primarily to the north and west.

MARKET OVERVIEW

The 4th most populous metro in the nation, the Houston MSA covers 9,444 square miles, an area slightly smaller than Massachusetts but larger than New Jersey.

Higher Education: Over 40 post-secondary education institutions are in the metro. Nearly 33 percent of citizens ages 25 and older have a bachelor's degree, with almost 12 percent also holding a graduate or professional degree. Institutions include:

For more than half a century, NASA's Lyndon B. Johnson Space Center has led our nation and the world on a continuing adventure of human exploration, discovery and achievement and is a popular tourist and educational destination.

Corporate Growth: Houston is a top destination for corporate relocations, due to its business-friendly environment. Approximately 24 Fortune 500 companies are headquartered in the metro, ranking third among U.S. metro areas.

The metropolitan area is also known internationally for its medical community and is home to Texas Medical Center, the largest of its kind in the world.

Quality of Life: The metropolitan area's favorable location and climate translate to an abundance of outdoor activities. More than a dozen state parks and recreation areas lie within a short drive of Houston's city limits, as well as more than 500 local parks and open spaces, various cultural venues and museums.

Houston hosts four professional sports teams: the Houston Texans (NFL), the Houston Astros (MLB), the Houston Rockets (NBA), and the Houston Dynamo (MLS).

The Port of Houston is one of the country's busiest for exports, supplying thousands of jobs and generating billions of dollars in revenue.

Houston is the center of U.S. energy production, with a diverse economy including biotechnology, nanotechnology, and logistics.

MARCUS & MILLICHAP CAPITAL CORPORATION CAPABILITIES

Marcus & Millichap Capital Corporation (MMCC) is a subsidiary of Marcus & Millichap (NYSE:MMI). We source and structure financing for a wide variety of net lease and multi-tenant retail properties across the nation. Whether for acquisitions, development or recapitalizations, appropriate debt structuring is critical for not only favorable returns but to also prevent over-leveraging and create flexibility to respond to market trends.

Ultimately, our Debt Placement capabilities drive lenders to work in partnership with our retail clients to achieve a balanced capital stack that results in favorable leverage levels, loan pricing, terms, and options.

Information About Brokerage Services

11-03-2025

Texas law requires all real estate license holders to give the following information about brokerage services to prospective buyers, tenants, sellers and landlords.

TYPES OF REAL ESTATE LICENSE HOLDERS:

- A BROKER is responsible for all brokerage activities, including acts performed by sales agents sponsored by the broker.

- A SALES AGENT must be sponsored by a broker and works with clients on behalf of the broker.

A BROKER'S MINIMUM DUTIES REQUIRED BY LAW (A client is the person or party that the broker represents):

- Put the interests of the client above all others, including the broker's own interests;
- Inform the client of any material information about the property or transaction received by the broker;
- Answer the client's questions and present any offer to or counter-offer from the client; and
- Treat all parties to a real estate transaction honestly and fairly.

WRITTEN AGREEMENTS ARE REQUIRED IN CERTAIN SITUATIONS: A license holder who performs brokerage activity for a prospective buyer of residential property must enter into a written agreement with the buyer before showing any residential property to the buyer or if no residential property will be shown, before presenting an offer on behalf of the buyer. This written agreement must contain specific information required by Texas law. For more information on these requirements, see section 1101.563 of the Texas Occupations Code. Even if a written agreement is not required, to avoid disputes, all agreements between you and a broker should be in writing and clearly establish: (i) the broker's duties and responsibilities to you and your obligations under the agreement; and (ii) the amount or rate of compensation the broker will receive and how this amount is determined.

A LICENSE HOLDER CAN REPRESENT A PARTY IN A REAL ESTATE TRANSACTION:

AS AGENT FOR OWNER (SELLER/LANDLORD): The broker becomes the property owner's agent through an agreement with the owner, usually in a written listing to sell or property management agreement. An owner's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the owner of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent or subagent by the buyer or buyer's agent. An owner's agent fees are not set by law and are fully negotiable.

AS AGENT FOR BUYER/TENANT: The broker becomes the buyer/tenant's agent by agreeing to represent the buyer, usually through a written representation agreement. A buyer's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the buyer of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent by the seller or seller's agent. A buyer/tenant's agent fees are not set by law and are fully negotiable.

AS AGENT FOR BOTH - INTERMEDIARY: To act as an intermediary between the parties the broker must first obtain the written agreement of each party to the transaction. The written agreement must state who will pay the broker and, in conspicuous bold or underlined print, set forth the broker's obligations as an intermediary. A broker who acts as an intermediary:

- Must treat all parties to the transaction impartially and fairly;
- May, with the parties' written consent, appoint a different license holder associated with the broker to each party (owner and buyer) to communicate with, provide opinions and advice to, and carry out the instructions of each party to the transaction.
- Must not, unless specifically authorized in writing to do so by the party, disclose:
 - that the owner will accept a price less than the written asking price;
 - that the buyer/tenant will pay a price greater than the price submitted in a written offer; and
 - any confidential information or any other information that a party specifically instructs the broker in writing not to disclose, unless required to do so by law.

A LICENSE HOLDER CAN SHOW PROPERTY TO A BUYER/TENANT WITHOUT REPRESENTING THE BUYER/TENANT IF:

- The broker has not agreed with the buyer/tenant, either orally or in writing, to represent the buyer/tenant;
- The broker is not otherwise acting as the buyer/tenant's agent at the time of showing the property;
- The broker does not provide the buyer/tenant options or advise regarding the property or real estate transactions generally; and
- The broker does not perform any other act of real estate brokerage for the buyer/tenant.

Before showing a residential property to an unrepresented prospective buyer, a license holder must enter into a written agreement contains the information required by section 1101.563 of the Texas Occupations Code. The agreement may not be exclusive and must be limited to no more than 14 days.

LICENSE HOLDER CONTACT INFORMATION: This notice is being provided for information purposes. It does not create an obligation for you to use the broker's services. Please acknowledge receipt of this notice below and retain a copy for your records.
