The Okun Produce Building – Retail Opportunities

Building on its legacy as a cornerstone of Toledo's produce district, The Okun Produce Building at Huron Yards offers prime street-level retail space in one of downtown's most walkable and vibrant corridors. This true mixed-use building is also home to 14 loft apartments, a commercial office space and grocery store (coming 2026).

Supported by over $1.1 million in public investment, including State Historic and Opportunity Zone Tax Credits and a City of Toledo White-Box Grant, the property represents both a prestigious address and a smart business opportunity in Toledo's urban core.

About Huron Yards

Huron Yards, developed by Crane Development, is transforming Huron Street into a lively district for living, working, and gathering. The development blends historic preservation with modern construction to deliver dynamic commercial spaces, creative work environments, and community amenities.

Tenants in Huron Yards gain exposure to a built-in audience of residents, office workers, and visitors, alongside established businesses like Huron Street Studios, Toledo's Share Winery, and Graphite Design and Build — all drawing people to the district daily.

The Yard – Your Outdoor Advantage

Adjacent to the available retail space is The Yard, an activated outdoor courtyard featuring food trucks, communal seating, live entertainment, and social events. Retail tenants will benefit from daily engagement, high foot traffic, dedicated customer parking and a vibrant, energetic environment that keeps visitors coming back.
