PROPERTY OVERVIEW

5126 RICKER Road #1-4 Jacksonville, FL 32210

In Duval County (Jacksonville), RMD-D zoning stands for Residential Medium Density – Duplex/Multifamily and is intended to accommodate medium-density residential development. This zoning allows for duplexes, quadplexes, townhomes, and other small multifamily uses, making it well-suited for income-producing residential properties.

RMD-D permits a higher density than single-family zoning while maintaining neighborhood-scale development standards. For investors, this zoning confirms the property's multifamily use is permitted and provides flexibility for continued rental operations or potential future redevelopment, subject to applicable lot size, parking, and setback requirements.
