LOCATION DESCRIPTION

Miami Beach's Lincoln Road is one of the most unique shopping districts in the world, full of stunning architecture, world-class culture and destination retail stores. The 8-block-long pedestrian mall was designed by famed art deco architect Morris Lapidus, filling the broad street with public art and native plants that enhances the experience. Over 200 boutiques and restaurants line both sides of the street, for about a mile from Alton Road to Collins Avenue. You can shop at international brands like All Saints, Mango, Ted Baker, Scotch & Soda, Zara, H&M, and popular brands like Adidas, Nike, Anthropologie, Lululemon and much more. Lincoln Road also boasts a wide range of restaurants and cafe's which include Mila, the Lincoln Eatery, Playa, Chotto Matte, Osteria Fortunata.

Lincoln Road is also situated at the heart of several historical landmarks and municipal infrastructures which include the Miami Beach Convention Center (1.4M SF of convention space, which hosts the world-renowned annual Art Basel), The Fillmore, The Miami Beach Botanical Garden, the Holocaust Memorial, the Colony Theatre, the New World Center, the Bass museum and many more.

It is located in the heart of Miami Beach which extends across seven square miles on an island separating Biscayne Bay from the Atlantic Ocean. It features 63 miles of water frontage, exceptional quality of life, and numerous cultural events, along with excellent business opportunities, superior hotels, art galleries, restaurants & boutique shopping.
