OFFERING SUMMARY

7402 VARNA AVE

SHOWROOM / AUTOMOTIVE FOR LEASE

Stratton Commercial Real Estate is pleased to present 7402 Varna Ave in North Hollywood. The offering includes a front showroom space and a rear automotive or industrial area, with the flexibility to lease the spaces together as a single operation or separately to suit different business needs.

The front showroom features a finished layout with tile flooring, high ceilings, architectural columns, and multiple private rooms, making it ideal for retail, office, showroom, or creative uses that benefit from a professional, customer-facing environment.

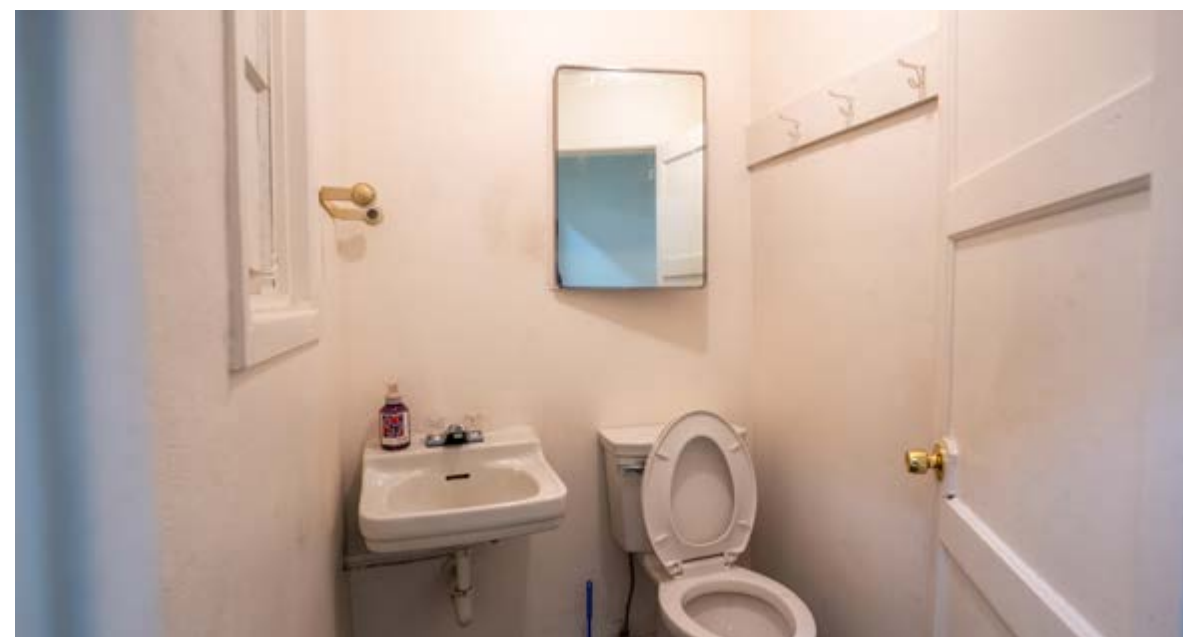

The rear portion of the property is designed for automotive or light industrial operations and offers high-clearance covered work areas, durable concrete flooring, and convenient vehicle access. This configuration supports automotive repair, detailing, fabrication, contractor use, or similar industrial activities while allowing clear separation from the front showroom if desired. Situated in a strong North Hollywood commercial and industrial location with accessibility to major routes, this property provides a rare opportunity for users seeking both visibility and operational space.

For more information or to schedule a private tour, please contact Daniel Stratton.
