PROPERTY OVERVIEW

A rare opportunity to buy a highly visible 1st floor retail/office condominium with mezzanine offices with Stout Street and 17th Avenue street frontage. ASK PRICE, RENT EQUIVALENT TO APPROX. $16.25 SF NNN - MUCH LOWER THAN 1ST FLOOR RETAIL RENTS IN THE AREA. It provides a turn-key opportunity of a great location for a financial institution or other commercial user looking for a signature location in Downtown Denver. The Equitable Building is in a class all by itself with ornate finishes, Tiffany stained glass, open curved master stairwell and an array of different office improvements. This Italian Renaissance Revival Edifice is filled with intricate brass details, marble wainscoting, marble mosaic tiles in Byzantine motifs on the vaulted ceilings, and elegant chandeliers on the interior and granite blocks, grey brick, terra cotta banding, and elegant details abound on the exterior. The unit is currently finished out with TWO vaults including a 35-ton circular walk in vault and updated clean white finishes throughout the offices, conference room, hallways and lobby. One of Denver's finest and storied historic properties converted to condominiums in 2011. Ask broker about unfinished SF not included in this price as well as prominent exterior corner building signage per picture above. RECENTLY REDUCED

EQUITABLE BUILDING – BEAUTIFUL GROUND FLOOR UNIT WITH NEW INTERIOR

730 17th Street, Unit 1C, Denver, CO 80202

LOCATION OVERVIEW – OWN A PART OF THE DOWNTOWN DENVER REAL ESTATE RESURRECTION!

Downtown Denver is experiencing significant residential development, including large mixed use projects and conversion of obsolete office buildings into apartments and condos. In addition to adding thousands of new housing units to revitalize the city core e.g. (1) The conversion of the office complex at 621 & 633 17th Street into a multifamily residential complex with about 700 units, (2) The Symes & University Buildings on 16th Street, (3) Petroleum Building along 16th Street (4) 178 Market Rate apartments adding income restricted homes at The Denver Dry Goods building, (5) the proposed conversion of affordable and proposed conversion of market-rate units at 475 17th Street. In addition, the 16th Street Mall Revitalization Project is now complete and the City is conducting studies to convert Stout Street to a two-way street which would increase the neighboring vehicular traffic. In 4th Qtr 2025, four office towers also traded hands at significant discounts thus opening more redevelopment opportunities. This 1st floor hard corner commercial corner space is in the heart of the Central Business District within one block of the newly expanded and pedestrian-friendly 16th Street and in the MIDDLE of all these exciting new real estate projects previously mentioned. The Equitable Building sits across the street from an RTD light rail stop serving light rail up and down Stout Street and offers easy access to public transportation immediately in front of main access to Unit 1C and the Equitable Building.
