ABOUT BUCKEYE, ARIZONA

Buckeye, Arizona is experiencing significant residential growth, making it one of the fastest-growing cities in the nation. The city's population has increased substantially in recent years, reaching 120,000 residents as of March 2025. This growth is driven by factors like affordable housing, a thriving job market, and its strategic location.

2025 RESIDENTIAL GROWTH

Buckeye continues to see tremendous residential growth throughout the community. The city is projecting 2,900+ SFR & Multi-family units in 2025, which equates to approximately 8,300 new residents added to the community.

20 YEARS OF FUTURE GROWTH

Growth within Buckeye is expected to increase in the coming years, as other areas within metro Phoenix are built out or are constrained by physical and geopolitical limitations (i.e. Indian communities, U.S. Forest Services lands, mountain ranges, etc.) Buckeye's entitled land can support an ultimate build-out population of over 1 million, which would make it the second most populous city in Arizona, after the City of Phoenix.

DEVELOPMENT ON THE RISE

Buckeye continues to see development across the community. With 35 residential developments currently active in Buckeye, an additional 21,000 residential lots to be developed in the coming years.
