Restaurant or Commercial.

Located on Highway 6 in the heart of Emily's lake country, this versatile property offers a rare opportunity for a new owner to create their own vision. Formerly operated as a bar, grill, and event center, the site provides an excellent foundation for a wide range of commercial or hospitality uses. Recent capital improvements include a new roof and remodeled interior. The expansive interior layout provides open, flexible space that can be customized for retail, office, hospitality, or service-based operations. An upper-level two-bedroom apartment offers additional value as an owner's residence, staff housing, or rental income opportunity. Ample on-site parking and outdoor space supports high customer capacity, while the property's visibility along Highway 6 ensures strong exposure to both locals and seasonal visitors. This is a unique opportunity to purchase a highly adaptable property in a growing recreational area—ready to be transformed into your next business venture.

Thank you for considering this Close - Converse opportunity

Close - Converse is pleased to present this real estate opportunity for your review. It is our intention to provide you with the breadth of information and data that will allow you to make an informed decision.

We are here to help

Please review this package and contact us with any questions you may have. We are prepared to discuss how this property meets your needs and desires. Facts, figures and background information will aid in your decision. Should you need specialized counsel in the areas of taxation, law, finance, or other areas of professional expertise, we will be happy to work with your advisor or, we can recommend competent professionals.

How to acquire this opportunity

When you have made a decision to move forward, we can help structure a proposal that covers all the complexities of a commercial real estate transaction. As seller's representatives, we know the seller's specific needs and can tailor a proposal that expresses your desires, provides appropriate contingencies for due diligence and results in a win-win transaction for all parties.

Agency and you

Generally, we are retained by sellers or landlords to represent them in the packaging and marketing of their commercial, investment or development real estate. You are encouraged to review the Minnesota disclosure form "Agency Relationships in Real Estate Transactions" which is enclosed at the end of this package. If you have questions about agency and how it relates to your search for the right property, please ask us. We will answer all your questions and review the alternatives.

Should you wish to pursue this opportunity, please acknowledge your review of "Agency Relationships" by signing, dating and returning it to us.

AGENCY RELATIONSHIPS IN REAL ESTATE TRANSACTIONS

1. Page 1

ACKNOWLEDGMENT: I/We acknowledge that I/we have been presented with the below-described options. I/We understand that until I/we have signed a representation contract, I/we am/are not represented by the broker/salesperson. I/We understand that written consent is required for a dual agency relationship.

THIS IS A DISCLOSURE ONLY, NOT A CONTRACT FOR REPRESENTATION.

(Signature Seller's/Landlord's Broker: A broker who lists a property, or a salesperson who is licensed to the listing broker, represents the Seller/Landlord and acts on behalf of the Seller/Landlord. A Seller's/Landlord's broker owes to the Seller/Landlord the fiduciary duties described on page two (2). <sup>(2)</sup> The broker must also disclose to the Buyer material facts as defined in MN Statute 82.68, Subd. 3, of which the broker is aware that could adversely and significantly affect the Buyer's use or enjoyment of the property. (MN Statute 82.68, Subd. 3 does not apply to rental/lease transactions.) If a broker or salesperson working with a Buyer/Tenant as a customer is representing the Seller/Landlord, he or she must act in the Seller's/Landlord's best interest and must tell the Seller/Landlord information disclosed to him or her, except confidential information acquired in a facilitator relationship (see paragraph IV on page two (2)). In that case, the Buyer/Tenant will not be represented and will not receive advice and counsel from the broker or salesperson. 22. 23. II. Buyer's/Tenant's Broker: A Buyer/Tenant may enter into an agreement for the broker or salesperson to represent

- Buyer's/Tenant's Broker: A Buyer/Tenant may enter into an agreement for the broker or salesperson to represent and act on behalf of the Buyer/Tenant. The broker may represent the Buyer/Tenant only, and not the Seller/Landdor. A seven if he or she is being paid in whole or in part by the Seller/Landdor. A Buyer/Senant's broker owes to the Buyer/Tenant the fiduciary duties described on page two (2). <sup>(2)</sup> The broker must disclose to the Buyer material facts as defined in MN Statute 82.68, 5ud. 3. of which the broker is aware that could adversely and significantly affect the Buyer's or enjoyment of the property. (MN Statute 82.68, Suds. 3. does not apply to rentallesse transactions.) If a broker or salesperson working with a Seller/Landlord as a customer is representing the Buyer/Tenant, he or she must act in the Buyer's Tenant's best interest and must tell the Buyer/Tenant any information disclosed to him or her, except confidential information acquired in a facilitator relationship (see paragraph IV on page two (2)). In that case, the Seller/Landlord will not be represented and will not receive advice and counsel from the broker or salesperson.
- III. Dual Agency Broker Representing both Seller/Landlord and Buyer/Tenant: Dual agency occurs when one broker or salesperson represents both parties to a transaction, or when two salespersons licensed to the same broker each represent a party to the transaction. Dual agency requires the informed consent of all parties, and means that the broker and salesperson owe the same duties to the Seler/Landlord and the Buyer/Tenant. This role limits the level of representation the broker and salesperson can provide, and prohibits them from acting a transaction will be kept confidential unless one party instructs the broker or salesperson in writing to disclose specific information about him or her. Other information will be kept to disclose specific information about him or her. Other information will be kept and advocate for one party to the detriment of the other. 35. 36. 37. 38. 39. 40. 41. 42. 43. to the detriment of the other.(3)
  - Within the limitations described above, dual agents owe to both Seller/Landlord and Buyer/Tenant the fiduciary duties described below. <sup>(1)</sup> Dual agents must disclose to Buyers material facts as defined in MN Statute 82.68, Subd. 3, of which the broker is aware that could adversely and significantly affect the Buyer's use or enjoyment of the property. (MN Statute 82.68, Subd. 3 does not apply to rental/lease transactions.)
