West Central

Synopsis

The West Central submarket is a critical infill region of Las Vegas, bounded by the I-15 to the east and the master-planned Summerlin community to the west, nestled between the Northwest and Southwest submarkets. This area is defined by a unique architectural tapestry, blending newer suburban neighborhoods with the historic “Rancho” corridor, famous for its vintage estate-style homes and mid-century modern residences along Rancho Boulevard.

As one of the most established and densely populated segments of the valley, it features a high concentration of multi-family housing and mature residential grids that maximize the available land. This density is anchored by robust retail hubs, most notably the world-renowned Chinatown along Spring Mountain Road, where a bustling three-mile corridor of diverse international dining and commerce serves as a major economic engine for the entire city.

Professional Sports

Synopsis

The Las Vegas Valley has quickly become a premier sports market, with most teams playing in the communities around the city rather than in Las Vegas itself. The Vegas Golden Knights, its first major league franchise, won the Stanley Cup in 2023, and the Las Vegas Aces have dominated the WNBA with titles in 2022, 2023, and 2025. The Las Vegas Raiders bring three world championships (XI, XV, and XVIII), and the Las Vegas Athletics add a legacy of nine.

The valley also supports a deep minor league scene: the Las Vegas Aviators (Triple-A, Athletics affiliate), the Henderson Silver Knights (AHL, Golden Knights affiliate), and Las Vegas Lights FC (USL Championship soccer). Its indoor football and box lacrosse teams (the Vegas Knight Hawks and Las Vegas Desert Dogs, respectively) share Lee's Family Forum in Henderson with the Silver Knights.
