Professional office opportunity in the heart of Downtown Oswego! Ideally positioned on a highly visible corner at Route 34 & Madison, this charming two-story property offers exceptional exposure along one of the area's main thoroughfares.

Originally built in 1854 and thoughtfully converted into professional office space, the building underwent a rehab in 2011 and received additional updates including fresh interior paint in 2023.

The functional layout features a welcoming first-floor lobby/reception area, open workspace suitable for multiple desks, a conference room, and a main-level restroom. The second floor includes two private offices and an additional bathroom, providing flexibility for a variety of professional users.

Additional amenities include onsite parking, an unfinished basement, and an outdoor storage shed offering valuable extra storage space.

A rare opportunity to own or occupy a character-filled office property with modern updates, excellent visibility, and a premier downtown Oswego location.
