878 SEYMOUR STREET

The proposed redevelopment at 848 Seymour Street in downtown Vancouver aims to transform the surface parking lot east of the Orpheum Theatre into a 30-storey, 317-foot hotel tower with 393 guest rooms. Led by Hong Kong-based Paul Y. Construction, with local management by Forme Development and design by Perkins & Will Architects, the hotel will feature three floors dedicated to lobby spaces, a restaurant, bar, lounge, and amenities, highlighted by a three-storey atrium with sliding glass walls. Additional amenities will be located on the top two floors, while the laneway will be activated for passenger drop-off. The 238,400 sq ft building will have a floor area ratio of 17.7 and include four underground levels for parking and hotel operations, drawing more foot traffic and increased business to the nearby area.

KEY FEATURES:

- 31-storey hotel
- 16.6 FSR
- 317.5 ft. of building height
- Four levels of underground parking, having vehicular access from the lane

THE LOCATION

Granville Entertainment District is nestled in the heart of downtown Vancouver, connecting you to other iconic streets in Vancouver including Georgia, Robson, and Davie Street. Along its vibrant path, you'll discover a tapestry of notable landmarks, including the Vogue and Orpheum theaters, renowned for their captivating performances. The district is also famous for its wide variety of bars, restaurants, shops, and nightlife, with popular destinations like The Roxy, Aura Nightclub, The Vogue Theatre, The Commodore Ballroom, and The Rec Room.

Numerous expansive residential and commercial projects, as well as hotels, can be found in close proximity to the subject property. These include The Rolston by Rize Alliance, The Standard by BlueSky, The Manulife Financial Tower, Hotel Belmont MGallery, and Chateau Granville. Furthermore, the planned 35-storey hotel tower at 717 Davie Street by Deecorp is situated just a short distance from 1033 - 1039 Granville Street. This strategic placement positions this asset in an already well-established yet continuously evolving downtown area with a high volume of pedestrian traffic.
