The Opportunity

INVESTMENT OVERVIEW

1418 Hewitt Avenue is a compelling opportunity to acquire a high-visibility commercial asset at the center of Downtown Everett's revitalization. The property well-positioned on one of the submarket's most active pedestrian corridors, surrounded by an expanding mix of independent retailers, restaurants, multifamily properties, and office users. Its location provides strong street presence, consistent foot traffic, and immediate access to transit, public parking, and key regional connectors.

The asset is a well-maintained, 100% leased mixed-use property delivering durable in-place cash flow with long-term upside. The stable tenancy (+10-years) is in-place thru October 31, 2029, however, is subject to a redevelopment clause in favor of the landlord. A new 20-year roof system was installed in 2022.

Favorable MU25 zoning, ongoing public and private investment, and the flexibility of an efficient building footprint supports multiple paths to appreciation—whether through repositioning, future redevelopment, or continued rent growth.

Situated in the heart of Everett's cultural and commercial resurgence, 1418 Hewitt represents a strategically located, small-format investment offering at an accessible basis in one of Snohomish County's most active and rapidly evolving urban environments.

DOWNTOWN EVERETT

Downtown Everett is the economic and cultural anchor of Snohomish County and the largest city north of Seattle. As the 7th-largest city in Washington, Everett benefits from a diversified employment base spanning aerospace (Boeing, Intec, Korry Electronics, Safran), technology (Fortive, Intermec, Helion Energy), healthcare (Providence Regional Medical Center, Kaiser Permanente, Everett Clinic), and education (Everett Community College, WSU). The district is further supported by Naval Station Everett, the Port of Everett, and a proactive local government focused on fostering business growth.

Downtown Everett is a proud and active Main Street Community with coordinated support from the Downtown Everett Association, the Everett Chamber of Commerce, and the Economic Alliance of Snohomish County. This collective effort has driven steady investment, improved streetscapes, and a rising concentration of professional services, retail, dining, and residential development.

As the cultural center of the county, Everett delivers strong lifestyle and entertainment amenities—including Angel of the Winds Arena, the Everett Silvertips (WHL), the AquaSox (MiLB), the Edward D. Hansen Conference Center, and direct proximity to the Port of Everett, home to the largest public marina on the West Coast (+2,300 slips). The city offers more than 40 parks, 69 miles of trails, four golf courses, river and waterfront access, and commercial air service at Paine Field.

Downtown Everett, with expanding employers, steady public investment, and growing tourism, is well positioned to capitalize continued momentum and long-term economic stability.

Access and Transportation

Everett is a transit-oriented, commuter-friendly city and is highly accessible via several major highways, including I-5 State Route 99, State Route 525, State Route 527, and Highway 2 connecting Everett to the greater Pacific Northwest. The city enjoys significant investment in public transit infrastructure, notably a multimodal transit station served by several major providers – Community Transit, Greyhound, Amtrak, Island Transit, Skagit Transit, Sound Transit, and the Sounder Commuter Train – each providing convenient transportation to major employment centers from Everett to Seattle. Sound Transit plans to extend its Link light rail service to Downtown Everett, anticipated to open as early as 2037.

Everett Transit operates a robust system of intracity bus lines with numerous stops throughout Downtown, north Everett, and south Everett, linking the vibrant city center to each corner of the city.
