The JOSEPH HOOVER COMPANY is proud to present The Worship Place at Rocky Hollow, a contemporarily designed commercial structure currently utilized as a house of worship. It totals approximately 18,000 square feet of building space situated on 19.98 acres and is located at 375 County Road 245 in Georgetown, Texas.

The structure has been well maintained and was constructed in 2007 and 2012. The exterior walls are stucco and stone. The building includes a foyer; a large multipurpose room/sanctuary with a raised stage, two large projection screens, two master control areas for audio, visual, lighting and internet broadcasting; a small sanctuary with a raised stage, three administrative offices, a welcome center area, five classrooms of various sizes, a commercial kitchen, a lounge area, two storage areas and two restrooms (Refer to Floor Plans). The floors are polished stained concrete. The ceilings are 20 feet in height in most areas with the exception of some of the offices and classrooms. The PA system, chairs, tables and other items utilized in the operation of the property are included in the sale. The occupant load allowed by the City of Georgetown provides for up to 482 persons with movable seating or standing.

The site includes an asphalt paved parking area for a total of 214 parking spaces with 13 of those handicapped spaces, a portable building of approximately 500 square foot with electricity, a playground area for kids, landscaping and a pylon signage located at the entrance off County Road 245.

The city of Georgetown is one of the fastest growing cities in America. The Austin suburb has a current population of approximately 109,000. Georgetown is currently growing at a rate of 11.18 annually and its population has increased by 58.55% since 2020. (Refer to Residential Developments Included). Also, a copy of Georgetown Demographics is available upon request.

In July of 2022, a master plan was completed by Griffin + Jacobson Architects and Steger-Bizzell Engineering that serves as a conceptual site layout for the expansion of the existing improvements utilizing the entire 19.98 acres. The report suggests ideas to develop additional improvements of approximately 39,300 square feet along with an additional 368 parking spaces. A copy of the Rocky Hollow Master Plan is available upon request.
