East Village

East Village is the new name for one of Little Rock's oldest neighborhoods. It is a blend of tree-lined streets, historic homes, and inspiring repurposed industrial factories and warehouses that have been given new life as restaurants, entertainment venues, offices, and loft-style living. East Village is also home to the Clinton Presidential Center and Park, and the Heifer International World Headquarters.

Among the neighborhood offerings are local brewery Lost Forty, its 70s summer camp-inspired Camp Taco, popular coffee shop Fidel & Co., and its food hall-style restaurant, Sterling Market.

The Rail Yard is a hip hot spot with an urban beer garden and food truck stop anchored by the brick-and-mortar home of Count Porkula BBQ. It's a backyard bash—block party style.

Recent development news in East Village includes the grand opening of the Stella Boyle Smith Music Center, a $11.75 million, 20,000-square-foot facility; the forthcoming 13,500-square-foot Eastside Scrapyard event venue; the Sterling Market food hall in the former Sterling Paint Factory building; the under-construction Artspace Windgate Campus, a $36 million mixed-use development; and the recently opened Southern Tail Brewing, a canine-themed, 11,000 square-foot brewery/taproom.
