MARKET OVERVIEW

Section 02

SAN CARLOS

Early in its history, the City of San Carlos adopted the motto “City of Good Living”. That phrase stuck and is still used daily.

With an ideal climate, charming neighborhoods, a thriving business/ industrial district, and a small airport with an adjoining commercial area, San Carlos continually attracts new residents and businesses.

The “City of Good Living” strikes a fine balance between the picturesque neighborhood of its residential areas and the industrial and business-to-business areas East of the railroad tracks along Highway 101. San Carlos’ single-family homes are in scarce supply and in high demand due to the favorable amenities, excellent schools, and proximity to Silicon Valley.

The quality of life here is top-rated, with outstanding schools, excellent services for youth and seniors, and wonderful recreational and educational activities for all ages. The City also boasts of an unusually low crime rate. In recent years, citizens overwhelmingly endorsed bond issues to build a beautiful library and to upgrade local parks. A volunteer effort, spearheaded by the San Carlos Rotary Club, was responsible for the conceptualization and building of an extensively used Youth Center. San Carlos has a delightful downtown area that includes a mix of excellent restaurants and unique, locally owned retail shops. Laurel Street has evolved into one of the more popular areas in the County, with merchants clamoring for space amongst busy boutiques and quality restaurant offerings.

Section 12413.1 of the California Insurance Code, effective January 1, 1990, requires that any title insurance company, underwritten title company, or controlled escrow company handling funds in an escrow or sub-escrow capacity, wait a specified number of days after depositing funds, before recording any documents in connection with the transaction or disbursing funds. This statute allows for funds deposited by wire transfer to be disbursed the same day as deposit.
