The town of Shelburne is a center for fishing and shipbuilding, the two primary industries driving its economy. Other key sectors include lumbering and the manufacturing of institutional furniture, granite monuments, and marine supplies. The mall is located at the corner of Elliot Street, near Exits 25 and 26 off Highway 103. With ample parking and strong anchors such as Sobeys, The Bargain! Shop, and Lawtons Drug Store, residents can meet their everyday shopping needs at this one-stop destination.
