LOCATION OVERVIEW

The city of St. Clairsville was established in 1796 as Newellstown and renamed in 1802 to honor General Arthur St. Clair. It is the county seat of Belmont County and is home to 5,000 people, businesses, and recreational opportunities. St. Clairsville's Downtown Historic District, a portion of which was listed on the U.S. Department of the Interior's National Register of Historic Places in 1994, is the heartbeat of the community. The Belmont County Courthouse and the Belmont County Heritage Museum serve as anchors. The service industry is well represented with many professional offices, banks and small businesses, along with county offices and the public library.
