Location Overview

380 Hunt Club Road occupies a highly visible and accessible location within Ottawa's south end, near the corner of Hunt Club Road and River Road. This strategic position offers direct connectivity to key arterial routes, including Merivale Road, Riverside Drive, and Highway 416, facilitating efficient access to the downtown core, Ottawa International Airport, and surrounding suburban communities.

The property sits within a well-established mixed-use node that combines commercial, light industrial, and residential development. Nearby amenities include South Keys Shopping Centre, Ottawa Hunt and Golf Club, and an array of dining and service options along Hunt Club Road. The proximity to the airport (less than 10 minutes away) and key logistics corridors makes this an ideal location for businesses requiring regional and national connectivity.

Public transit service is available along Hunt Club Road, with connections to major OC Transpo routes and transit hubs. The area is also home to a growing residential population, supporting a strong labour pool for a variety of commercial uses.
