RaceTrac, Inc. is an American company operating a chain of gasoline service stations / convenience stores in the Southern United States. RaceTrac's history began as Carl Bloch Trackside Stations in Missouri in 1934. Carl's son Carl Bloch Jr. succeeded as CEO in 1967. After pioneering the concept of self-service gasoline in Alabama, Florida and Georgia, the Company relocated to Atlanta Georgia and adopted the RaceTrac brand.

In 1996, RaceTrac founded MetroPlex Energy, a wholly owned subsidiary of RaceTrac, Inc. and a wholesale fuel supplying company that secures bulk fuel to supply RaceTrac and RaceWay stores and other third party companies.

Today there are more than 660 RaceTrac convenience stores across seven southern states. RaceTrac also owns more than 200 RaceWay stores in 12 states across the Southeast.

ABOUT FORT WORTH

Fort Worth is the thirteenth most populous city in the U.S. and the fifth most populous city in Texas. Located in North Central Texas, the city is a cultural gateway into the American West covering nearly 350 square miles in Tarrant, Denton, Johnson, Parker and Wise counties, serving as the seat for Tarrant County. According to the 2022

Census Estimate, Fort Worth had a population of 958,692. Fort Worth has become one of the fastest-growing cities in the United States in recent years, nearly doubling its population since 2000. The city was established in 1849 as an Army outpost on a bluff overlooking the Trinity River. Today, Fort Worth still embraces its Western heritage and traditional architecture and design.

Fort Worth is home to several universities notably, Texas Christian University and Texas Wesleyan University and many multi-national corporations including Bell Helicopter, Lockheed Martin, American Airlines and others. Building on its frontier western heritage and a history of strong local arts patronage, Fort Worth has, in recent years, begun promoting itself as the "City of Cowboys and Culture". The Kimbell Art Museum, considered to have one of the best collections in the world, and the Amon Carter Museum, the latter of which houses one of the most extensive collections of American art in the world, are found in Ft Worth. Fort Worth also has the world's largest indoor rodeo.

Demographic Market Comparison Report

Information About Brokerage Services

Texas law requires all real estate license holders to give the following information about brokerage services to prospective buyers, tenants, sellers and landlords.

11-2-2015

TYPES OF REAL ESTATE LICENSE HOLDERS:

- A BROKER is responsible for all brokerage activities, including acts performed by sales agents sponsored by the broker.
- A SALES AGENT must be sponsored by a broker and works with clients on behalf of the broker.

A BROKER'S MINIMUM DUTIES REQUIRED BY LAW (A client is the person or party that the broker represents):

- Put the interests of the client above all others, including the broker's own interests;
- Inform the client of any material information about the property or transaction received by the broker;
- Answer the client's questions and present any offer to or counter-offer from the client; and
- Treat all parties to a real estate transaction honestly and fairly.

A LICENSE HOLDER CAN REPRESENT A PARTY IN A REAL ESTATE TRANSACTION:

AS AGENT FOR OWNER (SELLER/LANDLORD): The broker becomes the property owner's agent through an agreement with the owner, usually in a written listing to sell or property management agreement. An owner's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the owner of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent or subagent by the buyer or buyer's agent.

AS AGENT FOR BUYER/TENANT: The broker becomes the buyer/tenant's agent by agreeing to represent the buyer, usually through a written representation agreement. A buyer's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the buyer of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent by the seller or seller's agent.

AS AGENT FOR BOTH - INTERMEDIARY: To act as an intermediary between the parties the broker must first obtain the written agreement of each party to the transaction. The written agreement must state who will pay the broker and, in conspicuous bold or underlined print, set forth the broker's obligations as an intermediary. A broker who acts as an intermediary:

- Must treat all parties to the transaction impartially and fairly;
- May, with the parties' written consent, appoint a different license holder associated with the broker to each party (owner and buyer) to communicate with, provide opinions and advice to, and carry out the instructions of each party to the transaction.
- Must not, unless specifically authorized in writing to do so by the party, disclose:
  - that the owner will accept a price less than the written asking price;
  - that the buyer/tenant will pay a price greater than the price submitted in a written offer; and
  - any confidential information or any other information that a party specifically instructs the broker in writing not to disclose, unless required to do so by law.

AS SUBAGENT: A license holder acts as a subagent when aiding a buyer in a transaction without an agreement to represent the buyer. A subagent can assist the buyer but does not represent the buyer and must place the interests of the owner first.

TO AVOID DISPUTES, ALL AGREEMENTS BETWEEN YOU AND A BROKER SHOULD BE IN WRITING AND CLEARLY ESTABLISH:

- The broker's duties and responsibilities to you, and your obligations under the representation agreement.
- Who will pay the broker for services provided to you, when payment will be made and how the payment will be calculated.

LICENSE HOLDER CONTACT INFORMATION: This notice is being provided for information purposes. It does not create an obligation for you to use the broker's services. Please acknowledge receipt of this notice below and retain a copy for your records.
