AREA OVERVIEW

5901 NE Waldo Road | Gainesville, FL 32609

Gainesville is centrally located midway between the three major Florida cities of Jacksonville, Orlando and Tampa. Situated at the heart of North Central Florida, the city of Gainesville serves as one of Florida's major centers of culture, education, medicine, sports, and commerce. Gainesville is home to Florida's largest and oldest university, the University of Florida, as well as Santa Fe College, City College, UF Health, and North Florida Regional Medical Center. Gainesville has frequently been recognized as one of the nation's "best cities to live in" due to its unique intersection of urban life with surrounding abundance of natural parks, springs, lakes, and untouched landscapes. The climate consists of mild winters, warm summers, with an average of 28,000 hours of sunshine annually. The average high temperature in June is 89F degrees, while the average high in January is 65F degrees, and we have a 255-day growing season.
