Team Rooms

Ideal for departments or project teams of 5 people or more, this set up enhances collaboration by accommodating a working group within one room.

Offices

Whether you require a one-person corner office or a 5-person branch office, our offices are designed to maximize productivity and reduce monthly costs.

Cubes

A cost-effective solution for business professionals who require an individual workstation.

Hot-Desking

Hot-Desking is the ideal program for a group of mobile workers who need a dedicated office but not a full-time desk. This unique program reduces the cost per person and increases desk utilization to 100% by placing more than one person at a single desk.

Part-Time Offices

Optimal for professionals that require a local market presence but do not need a full-time office. Work from a private office for 80 hours each month.

The office space you need, when you need it, On-Demand.

Over half of the Fortune 500® and thousands of small and medium sized companies enhance their business performance by outsourcing to The Regus Group. Our global network of 750 locations across 60 countries enables us to provide our clients with best-in-class products and services at sensible prices. And, with a 98% worldwide client satisfaction rating you can be assured that we do our part to enhance your productivity each and everyday.

Each location features a full range of offices, meeting rooms, business and technology services to ensure maximum business performance both in your own Regus office and throughout our global network.

Offices

Choose from a corner office for one or a team room for 5 or more. We'll configure the office to meet your specific requirements – and if you expand or contract we'll work with you to ensure your office space meets your business needs.

Virtual Office

Once you have your office, you may also choose to set up a Virtual Office at any of our 750 locations across 60 countries. With four options to choose from, our Virtual Office programs are the most cost efficient way to establish a business presence virtually anywhere business gets done.

Meeting Rooms

Clients receive access to professional meeting rooms and videoconference studios that feature everything from high-speed Internet access, to audiovisual equipment, catering and more.

Business Services

Our office clients gain access to world-class On-Demand business support from: telephone answering to word processing, filing, desktop publishing and more.

Telecom & IT

We provide a simple, flexible and cost-effective solution for all of your IT needs. Our secure infrastructure is in place at each of our 750 locations across the globe. So, you can be up and running and fully connected when and where you need to be. You'll conserve cash because there is no up-front capital expenditure. And, we'll pass our global buying power onto you. Simply plug in and you're ready to do business.
