Convention Center

The San Diego Convention Center spans 2.6 million square feet and stands as the region's premier gathering place. Since opening, it has hosted more than 4,700 events, driving $20.9 billion in economic impact and $400 million in tax revenue. Annual highlights like Comic-Con inject $160–165 million alone into the local economy, fueling hotels, restaurants, and entertainment venues throughout downtown and the Gaslamp Quarter. With its iconic waterfront setting and global reputation, the Convention Center is a cornerstone of San Diego's business and visitor economy.

Petco Park | 0.3 Mi from Site

Petco Park

Petco Park, home of the San Diego Padres, drew a franchise-record 3.3 million fans in 2024, cementing its place as one of MLB's top-attended ballparks. Since its opening, the ballpark and surrounding East Village development have spurred more than 19,000 jobs, generated over $1.2 billion in visitor spending, and contributed more than $200 million in tax revenue to the city. With its record-setting crowds and steady flow of events, Petco Park remains a powerful economic engine for downtown San Diego.
