PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

Three-story South Central Omaha office building with approximately 28,655 square feet on about 1.25 acres on 87th and F Street. The building offers a versatile mix of open office areas, conference rooms, private offices, and workshop or storage zones, providing flexibility for a variety of business types.

Originally constructed in 1974, the property had a full renovation in 2018 on the interior and exterior. The property is fully configured as an office building, complete with parking and a dedicated entrance for each of its three floors. This layout provides exceptional flexibility, and potential for a drive-in door and dock door on lower level, allowing an owner occupant to occupy the entire building or to use only a portion while leasing out the remaining square footage. The configuration also positions the property well for an investor who may wish to reposition the asset and lease it to multiple tenants.

LOCATION DESCRIPTION

Located just off I-80, one of the main east to west corridors through Omaha, the site benefits from convenient access to the broader metro area as well as strong visibility within an established industrial and business park environment. This combination of location, size, and layout makes this building an attractive option for companies seeking a centrally located Omaha office headquarters or a solid long term investment.
