DISCLOSURE TO CLIENTS

Under Wisconsin law, a brokerage firm (hereinafter firm) and its brokers and salespersons (hereinafter agents) owe certain duties to all parties to a transaction:

- (a) The duty to provide brokerage services to you fairly and honestly.
- (b) The duty to exercise reasonable skill and care in providing brokerage services to you.
- (c) The duty to provide you with accurate information about market conditions within a reasonable time if you request it, unless disclosure of the information is prohibited by law.
- (d) The duty to disclose to you in writing certain Material Adverse Facts about a property, unless disclosure of the information is prohibited by law. (See lines 200-203.)
- (e) The duty to protect your confidentiality. Unless the law requires it, the firm and its agents will not disclose your confidential information or the confidential information of other parties. (See lines 148-165.)
- (f) The duty to safeguard trust funds and other property the firm and its agents holds.
- (g) The duty, when negotiating, to present contract proposals in an objective and unbiased manner and disclose the advantages and disadvantages of the proposals.

BECAUSE YOU HAVE ENTERED INTO AN AGENCY AGREEMENT WITH A FIRM, YOU ARE THE FIRM'S CLIENT.
A FIRM OWES ADDITIONAL DUTIES TO YOU AS A CLIENT OF THE FIRM:

- (a) The firm or one of its agents will provide, at your request, information and advice on real estate matters that affect your transaction, unless you release the firm from this duty.
 - (b) The firm or one of its agents must provide you with all material facts affecting the transaction, not just Adverse Facts.
 - (c) The firm and its agents will fulfill the firm's obligations under the agency agreement and fulfill your lawful requests that are within the scope of the agency agreement.
 - (d) The firm and its agents will negotiate for you, unless you release them from this duty.
 - (e) The firm and its agents will not place their interests ahead of your interests. The firm and its agents will not, unless required by law, give information or advice to other parties who are not the firm's clients, if giving the information or advice is contrary to your interests.
- If you become involved in a transaction in which another party is also the firm's client (a "multiple representation relationship"), different duties may apply.

MULTIPLE REPRESENTATION RELATIONSHIPS AND DESIGNATED AGENCY

■ A multiple representation relationship exists if a firm has an agency agreement with more than one client who is a party in the same transaction. If you and the firm's other clients in the transaction consent, the firm may provide services through designated agency, which is one type of multiple representation relationship.

■ Designated agency means that different agents with the firm will negotiate on behalf of you and the other client or clients in the transaction, and the firm's duties to you as a client will remain the same. Each agent will provide information,

114 opinions, and advice to the client for whom the agent is negotiating, to assist the client in the negotiations. Each client will
115 be able to receive information, opinions, and advice that will assist the client, even if the information, opinions, or advice
116 gives the client advantages in the negotiations over the firm's other clients. An agent will not reveal any of your confidential
117 information to another party unless required to do so by law.

118 ■ If a designated agency relationship is not authorized by you or other clients in the transaction, you may still authorize
119 or reject a different type of multiple representation relationship in which the firm may provide brokerage services to more
120 than one client in a transaction but neither the firm nor any of its agents may assist any client with information, opinions,
121 and advice which may favor the interests of one client over any other client. Under this neutral approach, the same agent
122 may represent more than one client in a transaction.

123 ■ If you do not consent to a multiple representation relationship the firm will not be allowed to provide brokerage services
124 to more than one client in the transaction.

125 CHECK ONLY ONE OF THE THREE BELOW:

126 ☒ The same firm may represent me and the other party as long as the same agent is not
127 representing us both. (multiple representation relationship with designated agency)

128 ☐ The same firm may represent me and the other party, but the firm must remain neutral regardless 129 if one or more different agents are involved. (multiple representation relationship without 130 designated agency)

131 ☐ The same firm cannot represent both me and the other party in the same transaction. (I reject 132 multiple representation relationships)

133 NOTE: All clients who are parties to this agency agreement consent to the selection checked above. You may 134 modify this selection by written notice to the firm at any time. Your firm is required to disclose to you in your 135 agency agreement the commission or fees that you may owe to your firm. If you have any questions about the 136 commission or fees that you may owe based upon the type of agency relationship you select with your firm, you
137 should ask your firm before signing the agency agreement.

138 SUBAGENCY

139 Your firm may, with your authorization in the agency agreement, engage other firms (subagent firms) to assist your firm by 140 providing brokerage services for your benefit. A subagent firm and the agents with the subagent firm will not put their own
141 interests ahead of your interests. A subagent firm will not, unless required by law, provide advice or opinions to other parties
142 if doing so is contrary to your interests.

143 PLEASE REVIEW THIS INFORMATION CAREFULLY. An agent can answer your questions about brokerage services,
144 but if you need legal advice, tax advice, or a professional home inspection, contact an attorney, tax advisor, or home
145 inspector.

146 This disclosure is required by section 452.135 of the Wisconsin statutes and is for information only. It is a plain language
147 summary of the duties owed to you under section 452.133 (2) of the Wisconsin statutes.

148 ■ CONFIDENTIALITY NOTICE TO CLIENTS: The Firm and its agents will keep confidential any information given to the 149 Firm or its agents in confidence, or any information obtained by the Firm and its agents that a reasonable person would
150 want to be kept confidential, unless the information must be disclosed by law or you authorize the Firm to disclose
151 particular information. The Firm and its agents shall continue to keep the information confidential after the Firm is no
152 longer providing brokerage services to you.

153 The following information is required to be disclosed by law:

154 1) Material Adverse Facts, as defined in section 452.01 (5g) of the Wisconsin statutes (see lines 200-203).

155 2) Any facts known by the Firm and its agents that contradict any information included in a written inspection report on 156 the property or real estate that is the subject of the transaction.

157 To ensure that the Firm and its agents are aware of what specific information you consider confidential, you may list that 158 information below (see lines 160-162). At a later time, you may also provide the Firm with other information you consider 159 to be confidential.

167 to have the Property in broom swept condition and free of all debris and personal property except for personal property
168 belonging to current tenants, sold to buyer or left with buyer's consent.

LEASED PROPERTY If Property is currently leased and lease(s) will extend beyond closing, Seller shall assign Seller's rights under the lease(s) and transfer all security deposits and prepaid rents (subject to agreed upon prorations) thereunder to buyer at closing. Seller acknowledges that Seller remains liable under the lease(s) unless released by tenant(s). CAUTION: Seller should consider obtaining an indemnification agreement from buyer for liabilities under the lease(s) unless released by tenants.
