East 74th Street is a picturesque, tree-lined block just moments from D'Agostino's and Citarella markets, two minutes from Central Park, the Solomon R. Guggenheim Museum, and The Metropolitan Museum of Art, with multiple nearby bus routes. Zoned for PS 6, the neighborhood is home to world-class dining options, including Antonucci, Elio's, Toloache, Nightly's, Uva, BLT Prime, Casa Tua, The Mark Restaurant by Jean-Georges, Kappo Masa, and Sistina.

RESIDENCE

Designed in 1935 by renowned architect William Lescaze, a pioneer of the European International Style, this exceptional townhome offers a rare opportunity to own a piece of modernist history in one of Manhattan's most lucrative neighborhoods. Meticulously renovated from top to bottom, including the addition of a large elevator, this residence harmoniously blends the original mid-century design with contemporary luxuries. Spanning over 7,000 square feet (650 SM) with a 20' x 57' footprint on a 102' lot, the property is currently configured as three elegant duplex apartments. It is an excellent opportunity for investment, multi-generational living, or easy transformation back into a single-family or two-family residence. Each unit is outfitted with high-end kitchens featuring Viking appliances, as well as private outdoor space, in-unit washers and dryers, Sonos sound systems, central air conditioning, central vacuum, and private keyed elevator access.
