MARKET OVERVIEW

PARKER, CO

Parker, Colorado, is a rapidly growing suburb located approximately 20 miles southeast of Denver that serves as a key residential and prospering economic hub in the Denver metropolitan area. With a population of nearly 70,000 residents, Parker is known for its high quality of life, high income earning residents, growing population and the Colorado Golf Club which hosted the 2010 PGA Championship.

New developments and modern amenities in Parker and Castle Rock have significantly enhanced the area's appeal as a desirable place to live and work. These developments are transforming the local landscape, providing modern housing options and expanding economic opportunities. The area's proximity to Denver and the Denver Tech Center makes it an attractive location for commercial real estate investment.

There has been a surging population base in Parker, which has grown nearly 30 percent between 2013 and 2023. The town has invested in expanding its infrastructure, including the Parker Road and E-470 interchange, which has improved connectivity to the broader Denver area by expanding the E-470 mainline. Parker is known for its affluent resident base, with household incomes significantly higher than the national average.

The median household income in Parker is approximately $126,615 with a median home value of around $710,000. This area's economic prosperity and wealth is reflected by the fact that Douglas County, where Parker is located, is the 8th wealthiest county in the United States.

The town boasts high levels of education, with over 55 percent of residents holding a bachelor's degree or higher. This educated workforce makes the area economically vital and attracts businesses looking for skilled talent. Additionally, Parker is known for its low crime rates, making it a safe, peaceful and desirable place to live.

- Positioned in one of the fastest-growing counties in the U.S.

DIFFERENT BROKERAGE RELATIONSHIPS ARE AVAILABLE WHICH INCLUDE SELLER AGENCY, BUYER AGENCY OR TRANSACTION-BROKERAGE.

BROKERAGE DISCLOSURE TO BUYER
DEFINITIONS OF WORKING RELATIONSHIPS

Seller's Agent: A seller's agent works solely on behalf of the seller to promote the interests of the seller with the utmost good faith, loyalty and fidelity. The agent negotiates on behalf of and acts as an advocate for the seller. The seller's agent must disclose to potential buyers all adverse material facts actually known by the seller's agent about the property. A separate written listing agreement is required which sets forth the duties and obligations of the broker and the seller.

Buyer's Agent: A buyer's agent works solely on behalf of the buyer to promote the interests of the buyer with the utmost good faith, loyalty and fidelity. The agent negotiates on behalf of and acts as an advocate for the buyer. The buyer's agent must disclose to potential sellers all adverse material facts actually known by the buyer's agent, including the buyer's financial ability to perform the terms of the transaction and, if a residential property, whether the buyer intends to occupy the property. A separate written buyer agency agreement is required which sets forth the duties and obligations of the broker and the buyer.

Transaction-Broker: A transaction-broker assists the buyer or seller or both throughout a real estate transaction by performing terms of any written or oral agreement, fully informing the parties, presenting all offers and assisting the parties with any contracts, including the closing of the transaction, without being an agent or advocate for any of the parties. A transaction-broker must use reasonable skill and care in the performance of any oral or written agreement, and must make the same disclosures as agents about all adverse material facts actually known by the transaction-broker concerning a property or a buyer's financial ability to perform the terms of a transaction and, if a residential property, whether the buyer intends to occupy the property. No written agreement is required.

Customer: A customer is a party to a real estate transaction with whom the broker has no brokerage relationship because such party has not engaged or employed the broker, either as the party's agent or as the party's transaction-broker.
