NEIGHBORHOOD OVERVIEW

Naperville is a suburb located approximately 30 miles west of Chicago, Illinois. With a population of over 145,000 people, it is the fifth largest city in Illinois. Naperville is known for its excellent schools, vibrant downtown area, and beautiful parks and open spaces.

Housing in Naperville is diverse, with options ranging from historic homes to newer, modern developments. The city is divided into four quadrants, each with its own unique feel and character. Downtown Naperville is the cultural hub of the city, with a mix of restaurants, shops, and entertainment options. The Riverwalk, a picturesque path that runs along the DuPage River, is a popular destination for residents and visitors alike.

Naperville is also home to a number of large corporations, including BP, Nicor Gas, and Edward Hospital. This has led to a strong job market and a relatively high median household income. Additionally, Naperville has a low crime rate, making it a safe place to live and raise a family.

Education is a top priority in Naperville, with several highly-ranked public school districts serving the area. In addition, there are several private schools and a number of colleges and universities nearby, including North Central College and Benedictine University.

Recreation opportunities abound in Naperville, with over 2,400 acres of parkland and more than 130 parks. Residents enjoy hiking and biking along the numerous trails, playing sports at the many athletic fields and courts, and swimming at the local pool complexes. The city also hosts a number of festivals and events throughout the year, including the Naperville Ale Fest and the Naperville Wine Festival.

Overall, Naperville is a thriving community with a high quality of life. Its mix of urban amenities and natural beauty make it a desirable place to live, work, and play.
