Owned by Abrams Development

Mickey Abrams founded Abrams Development Group (ADG) several real estate cycles ago in 1985, with the intent to consistently develop some of the highest-quality office, flex, and mixed-use properties in the Baltimore-Washington metropolitan region.

The ADG property management team is dedicated to serving only our tenants and properties - none other. So when tenants require assistance or attention to a matter, they receive the most expedient support and resolution - without delay, bureaucracy, or run-around.
