MARKET SUMMARY

LAS VEGAS

Las Vegas is a unique suburban community with an emphasis in tourism, entertainment, casinos and gambling, business, warehousing, and innovation. It is the only major city in the American West to have been founded in the 20th century. It has grown significantly each year and has been one of the most desirable cities to move to.

Las Vegas is an attractive market for many reasons, with no state income tax, growing tech companies such as Zappos and Switch, the origin of innovative companies like Solarcity and BrightSource, home of the UFC, and five professional sports teams - the Golden Knights NHL Team, the Henderson Silver Knights AHL Team, the Raiders NFL Team, the Las Vegas ACES WBNA Team, and the Las Vegas Aviators MiLB Team.

The population of the Las Vegas Valley currently sits at 2.3 million and has steadily increased by 50,000 people each year. Las Vegas holds majority of the population for Nevada at 75% and the state is projected to reach 3 million. This city has grown immensely in a short amount of time and does not show signs of stopping any time soon.
