EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

The Brandon Michaels Group of Marcus & Millichap, as Exclusive Advisor, is pleased to present 2120 S Fremont Avenue, a 14,060 square foot 7-Eleven anchored "L" shaped strip center situated on 0.82 acres of land (35,925 SF) ideally located at the signalized corner of Fremont Avenue and Montezuma Avenue at the on and off ramp of the Interstate 10 Freeway in Alhambra, CA.

2120 S Fremont Avenue is 100% occupied by internet resistant tenants and restaurants. The center's (9) units average 1,604 SF ideal retail spaces that can appeal to a variety of uses. The current tenants have staggered leases with 37.32% expiring in 2026, 16.62% in 2027, 18.77% in 2028, 6.93% in 2029, and 20.37% after 2030, creating income stability. The seasoned tenancy has occupied the center in excess of 9 years, on average. The center is occupied by 50.3% regional and national tenants including 7-Eleven, Papa John's, and Michoacana. The current monthly rent is $49,188.17 ($3.41/SF) NNN with an additional $1,458.00 per month from a cell tower, freeway sign, and seasonal TNT Fireworks stand. Ownership has received interest for EV charging stations and a double-sided digital billboard as additional income sources.

As a testament to the center's excellent fundamentals, 7-Eleven has anchored the property since 2007, more than 17 years. 7-Eleven recently completed a store renovation showing their commitment to the center. The tenant currently pays $11,193.75/month ($4.66/SF) NNN through 7/31/2027 with three (3) remaining five (5)-year options to extend. 7-Eleven is a global convenience store brand with more than 13,000 stores operated, franchised, or licensed in the US and Canada and more than 84,000 globally. The convenience store chain was founded in 1927 and is now headquartered in Irving, Texas. While not publicly traded, it is a wholly owned subsidiary of Seven & I Holdings Co. in Japan trading under the ticker SVNDY. The company recently received an acquisition offer from the parent company of Circle K convenience stores for $39 billion.

The subject property is located at the on and off ramp at Fremont Avenue of the Interstate 10 Freeway in Alhambra, CA. The property enjoys excellent visibility with approximately 320 and 110 feet of frontage along Fremont Avenue and Montezuma Avenue, respectively. As a result of its corner location, traffic counts exceed 27,000 vehicles per day with multiple points of egress/ingress along both Fremont Avenue and Montezuma Avenue, providing access to the property's fifty-seven (57) surface parking spaces (a ratio of 4.05 spaces per 1,000 SF). The center recently underwent a nearly $1 million renovation with new HVACs, new transformer, electrical switchboard, tenant panels, electrical lines. The center now has ample power to satisfy tenant needs.

ALHAMBRA, CALIFORNIA

Alhambra, CA, is a vibrant city located in Los Angeles County, characterized by its diverse community and rich cultural heritage. Offering a suburban feel, Alhambra combines residential areas with a variety of commercial and historical sites. The city features an eclectic mix of architectural styles, from early 20th-century buildings to modern developments, all of which contribute to its unique charm. Bordered by San Gabriel to the east, Monterey Park to the south, South Pasadena to the west, and Los Angeles to the northwest, Alhambra enjoys a strategic location that enhances its accessibility and community ties. Nearby cities also enrich Alhambra's character; for example, Monterey Park is known for its vibrant Asian dining scene, while South Pasadena boasts a quaint, small-town atmosphere with its own historic architecture and a strong emphasis on local businesses.

Alhambra itself is home to several notable attractions, such as the Alhambra Historic District, which showcases beautiful architecture and historical significance, and Alhambra Park, a large green space perfect for recreation and family activities. The city's thriving culinary scene features a variety of restaurants, reflecting its cultural diversity, with numerous options along Main Street. Additionally, the Alhambra Performing Arts Center offers cultural events and performances, enhancing the city's artistic landscape.

The city is well-equipped with amenities, including shopping centers like Alhambra Marketplace and local boutiques that cater to a wide range of tastes. Healthcare services are readily available through facilities such as Alhambra Hospital Medical Center. Alhambra is well-connected via major roadways, including the I-10 and I-710 freeways, which provide easy access to downtown Los Angeles and other areas. Public transportation options, including the Metro Gold Line and various bus services, further enhance mobility for residents and visitors.

With several public and private schools, Alhambra offers educational opportunities for families, while nearby institutions in neighboring cities expand these options further. The city hosts a range of community events throughout the year, such as cultural festivals and farmers' markets, which foster community engagement and celebration of diversity. The local housing market features a mix of single-family homes, apartments, and condominiums, making Alhambra appealing to a wide array of residents. Overall, Alhambra is a thriving city that combines cultural richness, accessibility, and a strong sense of community, making it an attractive place to live, work, and explore.
