SELLER IMPERSONATION FRAUD

in Real Estate Transactions

FRAUDSTERS are impersonating property owners to illegally sell real property. Sophisticated fraudsters are using the real property owner's Social Security and driver's license numbers in the transaction, as well as legitimate notary credentials, which may be applied without the notary's knowledge. Fraudsters prefer to use email and text messages to communicate, allowing them to mask themselves and commit crime from any location.

IMPORTANT NOTE: Some imposters are changing the mailing address where the tax bill is sent PRIOR to selling the property out from the legitimate owner. Contact the tax collector's office to find out if the subject property has had a recent address change.

Lookout for

PROPERTY RED FLAGS

- Is vacant or non-owner occupied, such as investment property, vacation property, or rental property
- Has a different address than the owner's address or tax mailing address
- Has no outstanding mortgage or liens
- Is for sale or sold below market value

SELLER RED FLAGS

- Wants a quick sale, generally in less than three weeks, and may not negotiate fees
- Wants a cash buyer
- Is refusing to attend the signing and claims to be out of state or country
- Is difficult to reach via phone and only wants to communicate by text or email, or refuses to meet via video call
- Demands proceeds be wired
- Refuses or is unable to complete multifactor authentication or identity verification
- Wants to use their own notary

Where approved by state regulators, consumers can purchase the American Land Title Association (ALTA) Homeowner's Policy of Title Insurance for additional fraud protection.

SELLER IMPERSONATION FRAUD

Prevention Resources & Tips

CONTACT SELLER USING INDEPENDENT SOURCES

- Contact the seller directly at an independently discovered and validated phone number
- Mail the seller at the address on tax records, property address, and grantee address (if different)
- Verify if you have a personal relationship or verified knowledge of the seller's identity

MANAGE THE NOTARIZATION

- Require the notarization be performed by a vetted and approved reputable national notary service
- Arrange for the seller to sign at the title company, an attorney's office, bank or U.S. embassy, if out of the country

VERIFY THE SELLER'S IDENTITY

- Search the seller's name using an online fraud detection service provider (LexisNexis, Credential Analysis, etc.)
- Perform an internet search of the seller's email and phone number
- Ask conversational questions to ascertain seller's knowledge of property information not readily available in public records
- Conduct additional due diligence as needed

CHECK THE PUBLIC RECORD

- Compare the seller's signature to previously recorded documents
- Compare the sales price to the appraisal, historical sales price, or tax appraisal value

FILE FRAUD REPORTS

- IC3.gov
- Local law enforcement
- State law enforcement, including the state bureau of investigation and state attorney general
- Secretary of state for notary violations

FIGHT FRAUD WITH INDUSTRY PARTNERS

- Notify real estate professional in your community such as county recorders, real estate agents, banks, loan officers, and the title and escrow company
- Provide education during office meetings or MLS meetings
- Contact your local title and escrow company immediately on pending transactions if you suspect any possible fraud attempts
