Studio City California

Located on the north slope of the Santa Monica Mountains within the San Fernando Valley, Studio City is known as the “Beverly Hills” of the San Fernando Valley and as one of the hottest places to live in Los Angeles. A mixture of hip enclaves and residential streets offers area residents and visitors a cozy atmosphere alongside trendy dining and shopping destinations. The neighborhood boasts a booming business sector with a charming small-town allure and offers residents a less hectic lifestyle than nearby Hollywood’s urban hub-bub. Named after the renowned CBS Studio Center that started in the neighborhood, Studio City has long attracted film industry employees, writers, musicians and actors; its close location to most of the major Hollywood studios has resulted in the entertainment industry’s heavy influence on the area’s culture.
