PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

Welcome to 25 Elm Street in Southbridge, Massachusetts, a 9,536 +/- SF office building. Also known as the Tiffany-Leonard House, the property is situated on the east side of Elm Street and located just south of downtown Southbridge and facing the Elm Street Fire House.

Constructed around 1832, this distinguished two-story brick structure landed on the National Register of Historic Places in 1989.

Originally commissioned for Bella Tiffany, a pivotal figure in the early 19th-century cotton milling industry, and later owned by the influential Manning Leonard, this building stands as a testament to the economic and political contributions of its esteemed occupants throughout history.
