ABOUT DAYTONA BEACH

2725 WEST INTERNATIONAL SPEEDWAY BOULEVARD

Flagship Asset – The Speedway

- The Speedway draws massive attention: the grandstands have roughly 101,500 permanent seats following the 2016 renovation.
- The $400 million "Daytona Rising" re-imaging project was completed in 2016
- Hosts the marquee race for stock-car racing: the Daytona 500 ("The Great American Race") along with numerous other major events.
- The facility is active year-round with racing weekends, car shows, corporate events, photo shoots, vehicle testing and more.
- Entrances, seating expansions and upgraded amenities make this a true "destination" asset for lodging demand.

Prime Interstate / Retail Location

- Situated right off Interstate 95, on International Speedway Blvd. Traffic counts: approx. 45,500 vehicles per day on ISB; 78,500 VPD on I-95 corridor
- Excellent retail environment nearby: strong national tenant presence within 1 mile (Target, Home Depot, Best Buy, etc.)
- Dense and growing population in the immediate area: latest data shows a 2025 population for Daytona Beach city of ~89,444, representing ~24% growth since 2020

Destination Market – Daytona Beach

- Often referred to as "The World's Most Famous Beach," Daytona Beach is a major tourism hub on Florida's Atlantic coast.
- Tourism draw: roughly 10 million visitors per year is a commonly cited figure (though direct third-party verification was not located in my search).
- Economic diversity: In addition to hospitality and tourism, the market supports retail, manufacturing, professional services and higher education.
- Florida has no state income tax, which is a positive attribute for investor attraction.
- Local education base: The city is home to multiple colleges/universities (aggregate enrollment >27,000 referenced in your material—confirm locally).
- The city also hosts corporate HQs / significant operations (for example, in insurance and sport/entertainment) adding to underlying accommodation demand.
