A CITY THAT NEVER SLEEPS

Las Vegas is a dynamic metropolitan area renowned for its tourism, entertainment, gaming, business, warehousing, and innovation sectors. Founded in 1905, it stands as a unique major city in the American West established in the 20th century. The city has experienced consistent population growth and remains a top destination for relocation due to its vibrant economy and lifestyle offerings.

Las Vegas attracts residents and businesses by boasting no state income tax, fostering a favorable economic environment; it hosts growing tech companies like Zappos and Switch; it has been a launchpad for innovative firms such as SolarCity and BrightSource; it is the home of the Ultimate Fighting Championship (UFC); and it boasts five professional sports teams, with a sixth on the way. These include the Vegas Golden Knights (NHL), Henderson Silver Knights (AHL), Las Vegas Raiders (NFL), Las Vegas Aces (WNBA),

Las Vegas Aviators (MiLB), and the forthcoming Las Vegas Athletics (MLB), set to relocate in 2028.

In 2024, Las Vegas welcomed approximately 41.7 million visitors, a 2.1% increase from 40.8 million in 2023, according to the Las Vegas Convention and Visitors Authority (LVCVA). Convention attendance remained robust, with roughly 6 million attendees in 2024, matching 2023 figures and reflecting the city's strong recovery in the events industry. Hotel occupancy averaged 83.6% in 2024, slightly up from 83.5% in 2023, despite a reduced room inventory of 150,612 due to the closures of the Tropicana and The Mirage. The average daily room rate (ADR) was approximately $191.29, with 46.3 million room nights occupied. Harry Reid International Airport set a new record in 2024, handling 58.4 million passengers, a 1.4% increase from 57.6 million in 2023, making it one of the busiest airports globally.
