CITY OF GENOA:

Genoa is an award-winning City, with the benefits of both an urban and rural community. Genoa is situated within just twenty minutes of I-90, I-39, and I-88, all of which allow access to urban areas such as Chicago and Madison. Passenger rail to Chicago is also just 20 minutes away and O'Hare airport can be reached within an hour. Chicago is 60 miles away and Rockford just 15 minutes. Illinois' second-largest public university, Northern Illinois University can be reached in 20 minutes. Locally, the City of Genoa has an excellent school system, a thriving downtown, and housing for all incomes. The community is ideal for families with many community events, parks and activities. The City is also welcoming of business through tax incentives and a proactive Chamber of Commerce. Genoa offers the benefits of a long-established City, with planning for the future, in addition to small-town friendliness.
