Property Overview

Truly one-of-a-kind 60-acre ranch property in Hudson, FL. This estate features a freshwater spring on-site, along with a second large pond, offering incredible water views and a self-sustaining ecosystem. A 3 BR/ 3BA block home sits overlooking the freshwater spring. Additional outbuildings, including an equipment shed and barn are also located on the property. Trails for hiking and riding are thoughtfully designed throughout the beautiful oak hammocks.

Zoned AR for ultimate flexibility, the land features a mix of pines and mature Florida live and scrub oak canopy. Perfect for developers looking for a low-density luxury project, or a private owner seeking a massive secluded footprint. Properties with active springs are a finite resource in Florida—don't miss the chance to own a piece of the Floridan Aquifer.

PROPERTY DETAILS & HIGHLIGHTS

APN	03-24-17-0000-00400-0010
Lot Size	60.2 Acres
Year Built	1975

Premier 60 acre ranch property in the heart of Hudson's growth corridor. This 60.2-acre parcel represents one of the largest remaining contiguous tracts in the area, uniquely featuring its own named freshwater spring and an additional large pond. For the developer or high-net-worth individual, this property offers a massive high amount of privacy and a highly desirable water-centric layout for a low-density luxury subdivision or a sprawling family compound. As water rights and natural springs become increasingly protected and scarce, owning a 60-acre footprint on the Floridan Aquifer is a strategic move for long-term value appreciation. Tyrone St provides easy access to an estate that feels worlds away but remains conveniently located near the Pasco-Hernando border
