The vibrant city of Newman, located in a small rural community, is home to around 10,000 residents. Situated 30 miles south of Modesto in Stanislaus County, it offers convenient access to a variety of destinations—within a two-hour drive, you can reach the State Capital, the ocean, or the mountains.

At the heart of the local retail landscape is Westside Marketplace, the primary neighborhood shopping center in the area. Anchored by Nob Hill Foods, the center serves customers from Newman, Gustine, Crows Landing, and surrounding rural communities, attracting approximately 600,000 visits annually (Placer).

The trade area, which is predominantly Hispanic, has a median household income of about $75,000 per year.
