3.2 MILLIONS VISITS ANNUALLY TO SAFEWAY

Renaissance Creek is located at the southwest corner of Douglas and Sierra College Boulevards in Roseville, California and is situated at the gateway to Granite Bay, one of the most affluent retail, office and residential areas in the entire Sacramento region.

The Douglas Boulevard corridor is the main east/west commercial arterial in Roseville and has become one of the largest office sub-markets with one of the strongest daytime populations in the Sacramento Region.

Sierra College Boulevard is the main north/south arterial in Roseville and connects Highway 50 to Interstate 80.

These two heavily traveled streets meet to create the most premier intersection in the Roseville/Granite Bay communities.

Village at Renaissance Creek provides a gathering place and an authentic and vital atmosphere that residential and office communities are drawn to and features a premier and unparalleled location, numerous outdoor seating venues, pedestrian-oriented plazas and beautiful outside architectural amenities.
