Generations of Local Knowledge

At JCR, our team is built on local market knowledge, hard work, and dedication. With extensive experience representing both tenant and owners across Orange County, we understand the unique opportunities and challenges in this market.

We are constantly monitoring current availabilities and upcoming opportunities, ensuring our clients stay ahead of the curve. By leveraging our strong relationships with other brokers and property owners, we secure competitive lease packages designed to maximize your success. Whether you're launching a new concept or expanding your footprint, JCR is here to represent you – working tirelessly to deliver the best terms, the best spaces, and the best deals. Our ultimate goal is to collaborate with people honestly, fairly, understand their business and facility requirements, and through excellent personal service, achieve long-term quality results.

I've been in real estate since 2009. In 2016, I earned my broker's license, and by January 2017, I was running my own independent agency. With decades of local knowledge and experience in everything from leasing and sales to residential and land transactions, I take pride in being a full-service broker who represents both landlords and tenants. Real estate has been part of my life since I bought my first property at 18, I love helping clients make confident and informed decisions and the personal lasting relationships that build out of a transaction.
