the opportunity

Located in the heart of Vancouver's evolving Port Town district, 1860 Powell Street offers a rare opportunity to secure light industrial space within one of the city's most creative and rapidly growing neighbourhoods. Just two blocks north of Conwest's Ironworks development, the area bridges Gastown and Railtown, placing tenants within a dynamic mix of makers, designers, and forward-thinking businesses.

The neighbourhood continues to gain momentum as a culinary and creative hub, with a strong concentration of independent restaurants, cafés, breweries, and distilleries. Notable nearby destinations include Straight & Marrow, Pallet Coffee Roasters, Parallel 49 Brewing, Odd Society Spirits, and a growing cluster of acclaimed eateries such as Angela Pastificio and Nabi House, alongside neighbourhood staples like JJ Bean.

Directly across the street, the iconic Hamilton Bank Building—home to Nero Tondo and Niwa—further anchors the area's unique character, contributing to a vibrant and highly local, community-driven atmosphere.

1860 Powell Street presents a compelling leasing opportunity for businesses seeking space in a design-forward, high-energy pocket of East Vancouver.
