Discover southern charm and hospitality at the Clewiston Inn. A beautifully restored classical revival, the Inn offers a perfect blend of country elegance and modern comfort. Nestled in the heart of South Florida's sugar cane country and on the shore of Lake Okeechobee, the Clewiston Inn provides visitors with a peaceful setting and welcoming retreat. You're certain to feel at home in one of our charming 57 guest rooms or suites. Eight (8) of them are apartments and 57 rooms are open and in good condition and upgraded with vinyl flooring and new paint, new security camera system and recently painted the banquet hall with new tiles. The banquet hall has Friday night entertainment that draws extra income. In the month of March-April is the sugarcane festival and the place is booked up and bringing in great revenue. A GREAT OPPORTUNITY for investors to grab this wonderful property and make it your own. We're conveniently located just 60 miles west of West Palm Beach and 60 miles east of Ft. Myers. The Clewiston Inn is also great for hosting corporate retreats, meetings, reunions weddings, reunions and other specialty events.
