Location Overview

Harvard is a city located in McHenry County, Illinois. The population was 9,469 at the 2020 census. The city is 63 miles from the Chicago Loop and it is the last stop on the Union Pacific Northwest Line.

CHICAGO METROPOLITAN AREA

Chicago-Naperville-Elgin is one of the largest metros in the nation. The Chicagoland area is bounded to the east by Lake Michigan, expands over a 5,000-square-mile region in northeastern Illinois and extends into Wisconsin and Indiana. The metro houses 9.6 million people and comprises 14 counties. The city of Chicago contains 2.7 million residents. During the past 20 years, the greatest growth occurred in the western portion of the region and was exemplified between 2020-2021. Since then, movement back into downtown Chicago is gaining headway as employers increasingly push for in-person work attendance, while progressing tourism levels support activity in the urban core.

The metro has one of the biggest economies in the nation, and is buoyed by its distribution, finance, manufacturing operations and growing high-technology sectors. The area is a major global tourist and convention destination. Typically, more than 50 million people visit the metro annually and support nearly 500,000 jobs in the leisure and hospitality sector. Backed by some of the nation's more well-regarded universities, the workforce is considered one of the most diverse and well trained among major United States metros. Illinois trails only New York City, Texas and California in total corporate headquarters. There are over 30 Fortune 500 companies based locally.
