EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

A rare opportunity to own a piece of Marietta history on one of its most storied and prestigious corridors. Built in 1900 and lovingly maintained ever since, this 2,683-square-foot landmark property sits on Washington Avenue NE — affectionately known as "Lawyer's Row" — where historic residences were thoughtfully converted to professional law offices, preserving the neighborhood's charm while embracing its natural evolution as a professional hub steps from the courthouse square.

Currently operating as a fully occupied multi-tenant professional office building, the property features six private offices, a dedicated administrative office, a welcoming common area sitting room, two restrooms, and a full kitchen — everything needed to run a polished, professional practice. A rear parking lot provides convenient off-street parking for tenants and clients alike. And welcoming everyone who arrives at the front door is a classic rocking chair front porch — a nod to the building's residential roots and a feature that sets this property apart from any standard commercial space.

All six offices are currently leased to individual attorneys, providing immediate, steady rental income from day one. The current owner's office will be vacated at closing, offering a new owner the unique ability to occupy one suite while collecting rent from the remaining five — a compelling proposition for an attorney, consultant, or professional services firm looking to offset ownership costs with built-in revenue.

The building has been well cared for throughout its life, with a newer roof offering peace of mind and reduced near-term capital expenditure. Situated less than one mile from Historic Marietta Square and Cobb County government buildings, and approximately two miles from I-75, the location is as practical as it is prestigious.

This is not just a property — it's a legacy address in one of metro Atlanta's most beloved historic communities. Whether you're an attorney ready to call Lawyer's Row home, an investor seeking a turnkey income-producing asset, or a visionary looking to steward a piece of Marietta's architectural heritage, 236 Washington Avenue NE delivers history, character, and cash flow under one roof.
